Re: Maine v. Raas - Civil No. 15952

Gentlemen:

Upon my return from vacation, I find that Messrs. Raskauskas and Stanford have apparently not replied to the suggestions contained in Mr. Connolly's undated letter which I received on July 12, 1969. Moreover, the government has not filed with the Court the Director's written responses to certain questions, which Mr. Yeagley indicated on July 16 would probably be filed within about two weeks.

Under the circumstances, it appears necessary to have another preliminary conference, which I suggest may be held in Washington and a report made to me. If you wish to have a conference in Baltimore, please get in touch with Miss Leonard and she will arrange a time.

Very truly yours,

Cyril W. Shull
Chief Judge
